

What is SHINE? A ministry of Carrollton First United Methodist Church. Designed to support families by sharing Christ's love with their children that have unique developmental and/or physical challenges.

Who can attend? Children with special needs ages 3-10 years old.

Parents' Afternoon Out – Provides planned fun activities for children in a safe, well supervised environment with trained, background checked volunteers.

Other – SHINE families are also invited to enjoy CFUMC's special children's events throughout the year. If interested, we provide support for children during Sunday School and Church hours for families who choose to attend Sunday morning services at Carrollton First United Methodist Church.
